COMMUNICATION STUDIES COURSE INFORMATION

Once you have identified the courses you would like to take while studying abroad, please review the Department of Communication Studies' course offerings. You will need to find UNC-CH courses that specifically correspond to ones you plan to take abroad. Classes that do not have a direct equivalent UNC-CH course should reasonably be able to fall into one of our four concentrations (Interpersonal and Organizational Communication; Media and Technology Studies and Production; Performance Studies; Rhetorical Studies).

Courses can be counted towards your concentration or major elective requirements. Students are not permitted to take more than half of their major courses abroad.

Please include an electronic copy of the syllabus (in English) for each course you list below. Syllabi must include a detailed list of the course readings and assignments. Courses cannot be considered for review without a copy of the syllabus.

PLEASE NOTE: This form is used to determine the likelihood of certain study abroad courses to be approved for credit within the Communication Studies major. Completion of this form does not guarantee approval of any course.

Courses taken abroad cannot be officially approved for credit for the Communication Studies major until the student returns to UNC-CH. At that time, students will complete Course Request Forms through the Study Abroad Office. Please retain all syllabi and coursework from your study abroad classes as such information might be needed during the evaluation process.

ALL COURSES MUST BE REVIEWED AND APPROVED BY THE DIRECTOR OF UNDERGRADUATE STUDIES TO RECEIVE CREDIT TOWARDS THE MAJOR. EVEN COURSES WITH SIMILAR TITLES MAY HAVE SUBSTANTIALLY DIFFERENT CONTENT, AND THUS MUST BE EVALUATED FOR EQUIVALENCY BY THE DEPARTMENT.
