

About this Job

Tobacco Road FC, a semi-professional soccer club based in Durham, NC is seeking media and communications majors with a focus in broadcasting for the upcoming 2018 PDL season. As a member of the PDL - the nation's largest and most prestigious developmental soccer league - Tobacco Road FC is searching for passionate, adaptable, detail-oriented, tech-savvy individuals. Applicants should enjoy working on a collaborative team in a start-up environment, thrive in a fast-paced setting, and love finding out-of-the-box solutions. At Tobacco Road FC, no two days are alike!

Qualified individuals should enjoy the following:

- Game Broadcast and Live Content internships include:
 - Develop and execute live broadcast strategy for all 7 home games
 - Capture and stream all home games through a 3 camera system
 - Capture live interviews from players and coaches
 - Develop and implement live content strategy for practices and away games
 - Create and implement player marketing strategies
 - Edit and create marketing content from video database

Qualified candidates should bring an entrepreneurial spirit and a passion for sports!

About Tobacco Road FC

From the Community. For the Community.

Tobacco Road FC is a semi-professional soccer club based in Durham, North Carolina. Competing in the Premier Development League, TRFC is a member of the nation's largest and most prestigious development league for aspiring professional soccer players.